

Supply Chain Manager

Job Summary

- Building a product tree that relies on mechanics, electronics, software and purchased parts.
- Procurement planning according to required quantity, criticality, delivery time, logistics, budget and inventory.
- Inventory management, responsibility for the correctness of the inventory and its maintenance, including preparing counts and submitting reports.
- Preparation of parts for production.
- Management of production documents including DHR.
- Transition from development to production.
- Assistance in activities with customers and distributors.
- logistics planning.
- Responsibility for suppliers and subcontractors.
- Maintenance of operating procedures and performing acceptance tests and pre-shipment tests.
- Support to development and marketing departments .
- Responsibility for the ERP
- Implementation of quality processes in the company.

Requirements:

- Industrial and management engineer - mandatory.
- Experience of 3-5 years in the industry in TPI positions in preferably multidisciplinary companies.
- Priority ERP - mandatory experience
- Experience working under medical device standards - an advantage.
- Experience in writing production documents.
- English: reading, writing and speaking at a very high level.